

Blames Racial Trouble on the Kennedys

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Joe T. Patterson of Mississippi today accused the Kennedy administration and Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy of principal responsibility for racial violence and troubles throughout the country.

His charge, in testimony before the Senate Commerce Committee, was challenged by Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney, D-Okla., who was presiding. "I disagree," Monroney said.

Patterson declared: "I firmly believe that the present U.S. attorney general, with the approval of the President of the United States, is far more responsible for the racial violence and troubles we are having throughout this nation than the ruthless leaders who are sponsoring and promoting racial unrest."

"I make this charge because I know as a matter of fact that down in my state agents and representatives of the U.S. Department of Justice are ever present where there is racial trouble and instead of working with the duly elected and responsible officials in an effort to prevent violence and disorder, these agents of the U.S. attorney general actually aid, abet and encourage violation of state laws and municipal ordinances, assuring the agitators that if and when arrested the Department of Justice will come to their rescue."

Preceding Patterson to the witness table in today's hearings on the Kennedy public accommodation bill was Gov. Carl E. Sanders of Georgia.

Patterson asked that Congress leave it to men and women of good will to work out voluntary solutions to the racial problems.

He strongly opposed the public accommodations bill and said its enactment would result only in resentment and resistance.

The Senate Commerce Committee is considering only the public accommodations part of the administration's seven-point civil rights program.

The Senate Judiciary Committee—which has the entire package—had asked Atty. Gen. Kennedy before it for simultaneous hearings.

In the House, representatives of major Negro organizations had an appointment with Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., to urge inclusion of a fair employment practices provision in the omnibus bill. Celler heads the House Judiciary Committee.

Sanders was the fifth Southern governor to testify before the Senate Commerce group.

Declares Rail Owner Unfair in Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — A union leader accused the nation's railroads today of using brink-of-strike tactics to press for compulsory arbitration to settle the rail work rules dispute.

H. E. Gilbert, president of the Brotherhood of Engineers and Firemen, testified before the House Commerce Committee.

Five on-train unions have said they will strike if new work rules, which would slice crews on freight and yard runs, are imposed by the industry.

The railroad deadline for posting of the new rules is 12:01 a.m. Aug. 29.

Gilbert spoke in opposition to President Kennedy's proposal the controversy be turned over to the Interstate Commerce Commission for the next two years.

He said that would be compulsory arbitration, pointing toward the end of "that kind of bargaining which has become a part of our system of free enterprise."

Gilbert said "the only solution to this case is to be found in collective bargaining—collective bargaining which has had a shot in the arm."

He said Congress can provide that booster shot.

He added both sides should bargain with the knowledge that "the heavy hand of congressional power is ready to punish a party failing to meet his public and private responsibilities during negotiations."

Senators working for a steelment say they are encouraged by a union official's announcement that the brotherhoods have submitted a new proposal.

GANDER, Nfld. (AP)—A U.S. Navy Super Constellation making a practice approach at the international Airport here crashed in flames at the end of the runway today.

All crew members aboard were reported to have escaped, the Canadian Press reported.

Airport firefighting crews, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and volunteers were battling the blaze.

No further details were immediately available.

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A twin-engine Army aircraft and a small private plane collided in the air near Allentown today and fell in flames in a cornfield.

Two bodies were found in the wreckage of the Army plane, which was from the U.S. War College at Carlisle, Pa. Another body was found about a mile away.

It at first was believed the crash only involved the Army plane. A check of the wreckage uncovered parts of a small plane.

The Army plane was practicing instrument landing approaches.

The small plane was a Stinson and behind the pilot's seat police said they found a license bearing the name Fred W. Turner, 17, Meadow Lane, Flemington, N.J.

There was no immediate identification of any dead.

The planes went down a mile west of the Allentown municipal golf course, which is on the outskirts of this industrial city of 110,000, about 60 miles from Philadelphia.

Eyewitnesses, who reported seeing flaming wreckage plunge to earth, told of only one plane involved. It was several hours later, after investigators found portions of the two aircraft, that the reason for the crash was uncovered.

The lower supervisor at the Allentown Airport said the Army plane had been cruising overhead for several hours in a check of its instrument landing system.

GM Earnings Rated $5.1 Million Daily

By ROGER LANE

NEW YORK (AP) — General Motors Corp. made $5.1 million a day in April, May and June, Saturdays and Sundays included.

GM, and probably no other business concern, ever made it faster.

The No. 1 automaker and world's largest industrial corporation set eight sales and earnings records in the second quarter.

Company officials said the excellent second quarter results reflected continued high demand for GM's automotive and nonautomotive products and high in national employment and personal income.

Profits soared to $464 million, GM said Monday in reporting to stockholders on this spring's unprecedented auto boom.

Earnings were higher at $497 million in the last three months of 1962. But that included $73.5 million from sale of GM's interest in Ethyl Corp. last November.

Second quarter net income came to $1.62 a share of common stock. The comparable sum in the fourth quarter of 1962 was $1.55, after a deduction of 19 cents a share owing to the Ethyl transaction.

Worldwide factory sales in the second quarter totaled 1,646,747, including 1,143,952 passenger cars and 149,775 trucks and coaches produced in the U.S., a U.S. vehicle total of 1,293,727.

Woman in Kidnaping Arraigned

RENO, Nev. (AP) — A Reno mother—one of four persons accused of an Arkansas kidnaping—appeared before Justice of the Peace William R. Beemer in Reno Monday for arraignment.

Mrs. Cecile Mae Lane, 26, was accompanied by her attorney, Carl F. Martillardo of Carson City. Beemer scheduled Mrs. Lane's extradition hearing for 3 p.m. Aug. 27. She was released on $5,000 bond.

Her husband, former Reno boxer Richard Tyler Lane, 31, was extradited by California authorities last week in connection with the same case.

Little Rock police claim the couple, together with two other persons, kidnaped a hospital clerk in an effort to release James Dean Walker, 25, Walker, another former Reno resident, was being treated for bullet wounds in a shooting during which a North Little Rock police officer was killed.

Mrs. Lane said she is innocent and will fight extradition.

James Burton Ing, 43, a Reno underworld figure, was also held at one time in the same case. Charges against him were dropped when he pleaded guilty to local charges of second degree burglary and assault with a deadly weapon. Ing was sentenced to two prison terms amounting to seven years by the Washoe County District Court.

Women Named To Nursing Board

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus appointed three women to the state Board of Nurse Examiners today. They are Mrs. Elizabeth S. Cameron of Pine Bluff, Louise Lynch of Little Rock and Mrs. Ona Heffington of Fort Smith.

All three terms expire May 1, 1967.

Faubus also appointed Woodrow Applegate as Mayor of Dover, to replace Ed Jones who resigned.

Declares Test Ban Treaty Has No Gimmicks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana said after a conference with President Kennedy today that there are "no gimmicks, no side issues," tied to the Moscow test ban treaty.

The Senate Democratic leader said the limited test ban agreement has broad support not only in the Senate which must ratify it, but in the House as well.

"We informed the President the chances for strong bipartisan ratification of the treaty by the Senate were excellent and that we expected the ratification would come as soon as possible," Mansfield said after the weekly White House breakfast session of Democratic congressional leaders.

Mansfield said Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman created a tremendous impression in his appearance before the Senate Foreign Relations and the Armed Services Committees and the Joint Atomic Energy Committee Monday.

He said Harriman answered all questions frankly and openly.

It appeared, however, that Senate Republican leaders have killed any chance of a bipartisan display at the formal signing of the test ban treaty in Moscow.

Don't Guess, Ward Jury Instructed

LONDON (AP) — Justice Sir Archie Marshall today warned jurors they must not try to guess why Dr. Stephen Ward's high society friends—such as Lord Astor and actor Douglas Fairbanks Jr.—have not sprung to his defense.

Summing up near the end of Ward's seven-day trial on vice charges, the judge said: "There may be many reasons why he has been abandoned in his extremity."

"But this is clear: If Stephen Ward was telling the truth in the witness box, there are in this city many witnesses of high estate and low who could have come and testified in support of his evidence."

Christine Keeler, 21, testified she slept with former War Minister John Profumo and he gave her money for her mother.

Mandy Rice-Davies, 18, swore she slept with Lord Astor and Douglas Fairbanks Jr.

Ward denied any knowledge of intercourse between the girls and the men they named. He said he certainly did not profit personally.

But none of the big names mentioned appeared at the Old Bailey to back up Ward's version.

A verdict is expected in the case with in 24 hours. A finding of guilty could send the society couple, 50, to jail for up to 25 years after a court hearing the judge said "has probably gained more notoriety than any trial in recent years."

Before the judge began his speech from the bench, prosecutor Mervyn Griffith-Jones demanded conviction on all five charges against Ward—three of living off prostitutes and two of procuring under-age girls.

Ward pleaded innocent and charged the girls who testified against him were lying.

U.S. Wants to Halt All Nuclear Tests

GENEVA (AP) — The United States announced today it will continue working for a treaty banning underground nuclear weapons tests to supplement the limited test ban accord achieved in Moscow last week.

U.S. Ambassador Charles C. Stelle told the resumed 17-nation disarmament conference the 1 limited test ban concluded in Moscow "does not accomplish the strongly preferred objective of the United States, a comprehensive treaty banning tests in all environments."

The Moscow treaty is for banning tests in the atmosphere, in space and under water, but does not include nuclear explosions underground.

Stelle's statement came at the outset of the conference which gathered amid uncertainty over its future.

Soviet negotiator Semyon K. Tsarapkin and Britain's Peter Thomas also were on hand to outline their positions on the limited test ban accord, generally hailed as a major cold war breakthrough.

The American negotiator made no reference to Monday's statement by French President Charles de Gaulle, who said France will not join the Moscow treaty and will go ahead with her own nuclear weapons development.

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A Russian nuclear blast detonated in space during the Soviet test series that ended last Dec. 24 crippled the electronic equipment of an American space satellite, the St. Louis Globe-Democrat said today.

In a copyrighted story from its Washington bureau, the Globe-Democrat said the satellite is believed still orbiting the earth, but its communications and control equipment ceased to function after the Russian test.

The effects of the blast have never been made public by United States authorities, the paper said, but are known to the Russians through their monitoring of American satellites.

The Russians presumably now know a great deal about how to knock out any American satellites, whether sent up for photographic work or weather observation or for other purposes, the Globe-Democrat said.

The paper said that Russian knowledge of how to paralyze a satellite without having to hit it directly also would give them a head start toward designing some type of protection for their own satellites.

Fred is the son of Mrs. R. P. Hamilton of Lovington, N.M. and D. F. Smith of San Jose, Calif. He is the grandson of Mrs. J. M. Kesner of Hope.

Children in New York Join Sit-ins

NEW YORK (AP) — Negro children sat down in the path of work trucks today and young demonstrators threw themselves onto a crane's load at a Brooklyn hospital construction site.

The demonstrations demand the hiring of more Negroes and Puerto Ricans in publicly financed construction. They have resulted in 19 arrests at the Downtown Medical Center project and three at a similar project at Queens.

In addition, police took 12 children from the Brooklyn site, listing the names of those over 7 for juvenile authorities and then releasing all.

Seven young pickets took police by surprise as a crane prepared to unload cement blocks across a fence from a truck in the street. They scrambled onto the pallet and lay on a loaded pallet, forcing the work to stop.

Policemen removed them bodily, three young women in the group kicking and screaming as they were carried to a patrol wagon.

In the shoving, milling crowd surrounding the scene, a newspaper photographer Matty Black, of the Journal-American, was jammed against an eight-foot steel mesh fence, injuring his leg.

He was taken to a doctor for examination, but the injury was not believed to be serious.

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Strengthened U.S. Army patrols backed by South Korean national police, killed four heavily armed North Korean Communist infiltrators today in a hunt for Red raiders who have slain three U.S. soldiers in two days.

Looking "under every bush," in the words of one U.S. commanding officer, the forces hunted down infiltrating saboteurs on missions close by the headquarters of the U.S. 4th Cavalry Regiment command post, six miles south of the Korean armistice line.

The fighting was the farthest south of the buffer area since the Korean armistice was signed July 27, 1953.

The action was set off Monday by the ambush of a U.S. jeep in which two U.S. soldiers were killed and a third wounded, below the Korean armistice line. With vigilance renewed and patrols strengthened, the hunt began for those attackers.

As troops and police scoured the area, another American soldier and a South Korean police officer engaged in another clash that cost their lives in the grassy bottomland south of the Injin River.

Summit Meet of Trio in the Far East

By CARL ZIMMERMAN

MANILA (AP)—Indonesia, Malaysia and the Philippines opened a tension-laden summit conference today, and Philippine President Diosdado Macapagal appealed for unity among the Malay nations at a moment of historic importance.

Macapagal told Indonesian President Sukarno and Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman of Malaysia that the projected Federation of Malaysia will be discussed frankly in the manner of brothers.

Macapagal conceded that the conference faces a difficult task. But he said he hopes that by the time the meeting ends Saturday, the three leaders will be speaking with one voice.

Macapagal pointed out that the conference is the first time that leaders of the three Malay nations have come together to consult about common problems.

He said if the three countries can resolve their problems, they will have contributed to the future not only of Southeast Asia but of the world.

Malaysia is the chief issue facing the conference.

Rahman is determined to launch the anti-Communist federation by Aug. 31. It is to embrace Malaysia, Singapore, Sarawak and British North Borneo.

Sukarno is equally determined to wreck Malaysia unless there is a plebiscite in the Borneo territories on the question of joining Malaysia. Malaysia contends a referendum is not necessary, that there have been sufficient samplings of opinion.

The Philippines is trying to mediate. It claims a portion of North Borneo but says it will not oppose the formation of Malaysia.

All three nations say they want to stick to the agreement reached in principle at the conference of their foreign ministers in Manila last month.

The agreement said the wishes of the Borneo peoples should be assessed by U.N. Secretary-General U. Thant or his representative. It left the method to Thant.

Negro Lover of Christine Gets Freedom

By TOM OCHILTREE

LONDON (AP)—The Court of Criminal Appeal today freed one of Christine Keeler's Negro ex-lovers, Aloysius (Lucky) Gordon, from a three-year prison sentence given him on a charge of assaulting the 21-year-old call girl.

The chief justice, Lord Parker, reversed the conviction on the basis of new evidence, including a 10-hour tape recording made by Christine while she was high on marijuana.

The chief justice did not make the new evidence public.

Gordon, 31, a Jamaican jazz singer, was freed after a nine-minute hearing. Lord Parker said his court had no jurisdiction to retry the case on fresh evidence and, "in many ways unfortunately, there is no provision for a new trial in such cases."

"But the court certainly thinks that if this evidence had been called," the chief justice continued, "the jury may have had a doubt in the matter."

Gordon was convicted last month of beating up Christine on April 18.

Seven weeks later she became the center of Britain's biggest political scandal of the century, when War Minister John D. Profumo resigned from the House of Commons and from Prime Minister Macmillan's government. He confessed he had lied to Commons in denying having had an affair with Christine.

Another casualty of the Profumo scandal, socialite osteopath Dr. Stephen Ward, is on trial on charges of operating a stable of prostitutes in which Miss Keeler and her chum, Marilyn (Mandy) Rice-Davies, 18, were star performers.

Ward's case is expected to go to the jury today or Wednesday.

MEMO

By JIM NORBERT

TO: Head Editor.
FROM: A. Jones, Reading Dept.
SUBJECT: Attached manuscript, titled:

Paradise Found.

Sir:

Having in my youth delved deeply and with great delight into the legends and lore of the South Seas, it was with truly eager curiosity I started reading the attached manuscript. Let me now flatly state that in all my 10 years (all in your office) of editorial reading I have never come across a mess of such pure hogwash. I feel almost certain this is indeed a hoax, and frankly, the author an outright liar.

However, in accordance with your recent instructions not to pass final judgment on anything that might possibly be published, I am sending it to you for final decision.

I make no recommendation whatever, but in view of the fact that the fantasy market is booming again, perhaps you might see the story in that light.

All I can say for the manuscript is that the author was enthusiastic. He has done a moderately passable job of writing, but he was handicapped by selecting such miserable subject matter. At any rate, the subject matter is treated in such a way as to cast doubt on its authenticity, and readers are very particular about this point when something claims to be true.

The story is supposedly the autobiography of a young whaler, who in the year 1910, at the age of 17, was wrecked on an unknown island in the South Pacific. Although you of course do not know it, I happened to be of New England whaling stock, in fact, it was my misfortune to be born after the whaling industry died. Hence you can understand my personal interest in this script. While sailing his home-made canoe the author is said to have crossed the path of a tramp steamer, handed the manuscript, addressed to us to a member of the crew. I have indeed known plenty of writers who went to extremes to place their work before a publisher, but this certainly sounds far-fetched, to say the least!

He claims the paper is home-made of coconut husks. Granted it is indeed odd looking and rough paper, as is his handwriting, but assuming this is a hoax, such paper could easily be made here, coconuts are sold in most supermarkets.

The style is over-simple, even for an old man, and so is the plot. The truth is the book reads like a bad Hollywood movie with the writer living on this lush, tropical isle, dozens of gorgeous females to every male. Life is entirely at ease and play. He writes over and over of such silly items as daily swimming with hundreds of scantily clad girls, covering his hut with bright lotus flowers, the weekly feasts, the night long dances, the fantastic fishing, the impossible lovemaking, children without a blemish or neurotic thought, and other such obvious tripe.

He claims a radio from a shipwreck floated to the island a year ago and for the first time he heard of all the tensions in the outside world; fear of war and the bomb, unemployment, disease, juvenile gangs, etc., etc., and is therefore giving his story free to mankind to remind them it is possible for people to live in peace and happiness.

This in itself is most suspicious, who ever heard of a writer anxious to give his work away? Further, I've checked with Washington and they say it's practically impossible in this jet age for any undiscovered islands to remain in the Pacific.

Must I go on? Surely, the manuscript speaks for itself on most of these points.

As you probably don't know (I doubt if you are aware of my name) I am a most conscientious employee. The story did arouse my old dreams—when I was coming up. Although you have not given me a raise in the past seven years, I have somehow managed to save a few bucks.

Therefore, in order to serve the company as diligently as possible I have lifted the maps from the manuscript, and when you read this I shall be on my way to see if this island is real or a hoax.

While I am positive, or almost positive, it is all a fake, if I return in a few months kindly remember I did it all to save the concern any possible lawsuits, and expect to have my old job waiting.

Of course, if it turns out to be true, I shall never return and you can take your lousy job and . . .

Never mind, I'll shout that from the island, if and when I find it.

Faithfully,
A. Jones.

Tuesday, July 30
The Jett B. Graves Sunday School Class of the First Methodist Church will have a potluck supper Tuesday, July 30 at 7 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Graydon Anthony with Mrs. Frank Walters and Mrs. G. Cook as co-hostesses.

Mrs. W. H. Davis Celebrates Birthday

On Sunday, July 28 a dinner for Mrs. W. H. Davis was held at her home to celebrate her 82nd birthday. The party was given by her children, Mrs. W. W. Brooks of Magnolia, Mrs. Ruth Taylor, Mrs. Orie Byers, Mrs. Estelle Payton, Mrs. Jesse Brooks, and Ernest Davis, all of Hope.
A delicious meal was served in the yard to 41 relatives and friends including a sister, Mrs. Eula Roberts of Hope. Out-of-town people attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Lyberger and son of Little Rock and

CHATTER

By "BILL"

People are going all out for "Chats" these days. You can join most any and all kinds. Today we received a brochure from which we quote: "Attention! Harassed husbands... learn how to woo your wife. Gentlemen do you ever feel hopelessly? Do you stumble over rough rocks on your road to Romance? Are you misunderstood? Well, if so, maybe it is your own fault!"

Then it goes on to say the women like to be courted just as they did in the dating days and men are inclined to forget such matters. By sending your check for a certain amount you can join the "Courtin' Club" and they will take care of presents such as... birthdays, anniversaries, all holidays and any other special occasions you might like to have remembered. This will eliminate all chances of you spending days in the doghouse because you forgot!

Well, now, we do not exactly have a Courtin' Club at Raley's Style Shoppe but we can take care of the situation just the same. Just you give us a ring, the number is PR 7-2833, and we will do the rest.

Starting with one of the new Jeanne Durrell Hi-Bulk orlon suits which can be worn now and right on into Fall. The colors are beautiful, pine green, the new cranberry red, gold, as rich looking as a Pirate's treasure chest... and of course black, which is always smart. These 1 and 2 piece garments are completely machine washable... the do not sag or stretch and they look exactly like the higher priced knits... you will be surprised to find they are only $19.95 and $25.95.

We cannot begin to name all the gifts we have for HER and if you would like to let her do the choosing, we will issue a Gift Certificate in any amount. Remember the place, it is Raley's Style Shoppe, 523 W. Third.

Former Hope Student Directs Play

Joseph Downs, formerly of Hope directed his own production of "The Maiden Voyage of The Jennifer Castle", at the Roger Little Theater at 8 p.m. last weekend at Rogers High School Auditorium.

Downs is the son of Joe Downs. He was raised in Hope and finished Jr. High School here. He graduated from Texarkana where he was editor of The Razorback. He went to Ouachita College on a journalism scholarship and worked two years as a reporter for the college News Bureau, and edited the Ouachita Newspaper, The Signal, a year.

He served his final year as assistant director of theater to Dennis Holt, doing set and lighting design and directing and remained for a year in that position after his graduation with a degree in drama.

He has appeared in a number of Ouachita Theater plays. He was honored by his fellow students at Ouachita by being elected Most Talented Boy his last year there.

After college he taught English and speech at Lake Side High School in Hot Springs before entering the University of Arkansas where he is a graduate student in theater.

They are amiable playmates, but note please that to avert an unhappy end to the idyll, Charlie, the parakeet, keeps as much distance as possible between him and Kitty, the cat.

DOROTHY DIX

GOOD NEWS FOR THE MEN

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: This is for the wife who signed herself "Just a Slave." From the beginning of time God decreed that man should be the head of his household and the one to rule over his wife. We all have positions of authority as well as of submission. Man is subject to God, women to man, children to parents, employees to employers. This is basic to good society.

When we are a law unto ourselves, confusion results. A wife may be submissive and serving but she was never meant to be a slave. Husbands are to love their wives, treat them with tenderness and provide them with the ease God provides for His children. In turn, husbands will earn the respect and admiration of a submissive, serving wife.

The philosophy of the world today, "Get all you can for yourself," leads only to degeneration and chaos. The true philosophy of life is, "Give all you can." Those who take the path will find it leads to happiness for all. —A Very Happy Wife

Dear Happy Wife: What a joy it is to answer a letter from someone who is very happy. It's quite obvious why you are. The best formula for happiness always has been and always will be the Golden Rule. To be sure, more people are motivated by the desire for material possessions than ever before, but this is because there are more people in the world and more material things within their grasp.

I agree wholeheartedly that no woman should be a slave but I can't subscribe to your adjectives "submissive" and "serving," in describing the ideal attitude of a wife toward her husband. You imply that wives are second class citizens in relation to their husbands, while I prefer to consider us as different but equal.

Granted, the master-slave relationship is peculiarly suited to some couples, and certain women need to feel subservient. By and large, though, dominance by one partner and subservience of the other do not necessarily add up to a good marriage in modern society. Of course it may be the better part of wisdom for the wife to encourage her husband to think he is lord and master, but deep in our hearts we both know that our roles (I'm speaking for myself) are equally important.

I once heard a superb definition by the writer, Louis Anspacher. He said, "Marriage is that relation between man and woman in which the independence is equal, the dependence mutual, and the obligation reciprocal."

In the past decade or two many observers of the human scene have bemoaned the fact that men increasingly appear to be taking a back seat in guiding their families' destinies. I am all for the restoration of male leadership in the home, but it must be leadership based on full cooperation of the wife, not domination. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Successful Marriage."

Dear Helen: My only son married a few months ago. Never having had a daughter I looked forward to being called "Mom" by my daughter-in-law. Instead she addresses me as "Mrs."

One day I said, "You should make me very happy if you called me Mom, instead." She said, "I only regret is that it isn't comprehensive. But as far as it goes, I'm satisfied with it. Well-informed and sincere men in the Senate are opposed to it, but I think they're in the small minority."

Branch ADMITTED: Juanita Wade, Hope; Mrs. Louise Jones, Hope; Willis Knighton, McNab; W. H. Harris, Hope; James Hamilton, Hope; Olivia Thomas, Hope.

DISCHARGED: Michael Chambers, Hope; Leroy Anderson, Hope; Roscoe Williams, Rossion; Mrs. Rhodie VanRiper, Fulton; Mrs. Linda Caldwell, Hope; Mrs. Wayne Banks, Hope; Mrs. Odie Johnson and baby girl, Hope; Juanita Wade and baby boy, Hope.

have a mother. You are not my mother."

This hurt. I would never attempt to take her mother's place. Am I wrong in wanting her to call me Mom? My relatives are beginning to notice the very formal unfriendly "Mrs." and it makes me feel terribly —Blue Mother-in-law.

Dear Blue: You're not wrong in wanting your daughter-in-law to call you "Mom." But I can understand her reluctance to do so. I agree that "Mrs." is excessively formal. Why can't she call you by your first name? If that seems too familiar, put your heads together and decide on a suitable nickname. I have a friend who is known as "Cricket" to her sons-in-law, and that name suits her perfectly.

Dear Helen: I took yours and my mother's advice about not going steady with one boy but to date many. I've never had so much fun. Now my problem is overpopularity. Every boy in town tries to date me.

I skip with my girl friend on Friday or Saturday nights. I'm home Monday through Thursday, so the only date night left is Sunday. This makes the boys I turn down mad. They call me a flirt. I'm not pretty but people say I've got personality. Will my popularity be endangered by these frequent turn-downs? —A 16-year-old

Dear Sixteen: The harder something is to get, the more desirable it usually is. A personality girl never needs to worry about dates but a merely pretty one might have to.

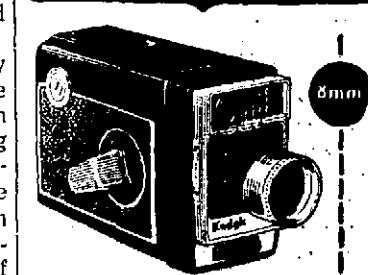

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "On Being Popular."

Memories Are Much Better Than Money, Stored in Mind They Draw Interest

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Memories are life's true gold. Memories are better than money. Stored in the mind, they always draw a high rate of interest. Unlike money, nobody can steal them away from you.

Children envied rugs, because rugs were usually beaten only once a year.

The first thing a boy did when he got a new bicycle was turn the handlebars down so it would look like a racing bike.

A guest, after a bounteous family meal, would compliment the beaming hostess by saying, "My, you certainly put the big pot in the little one!" Cautious mothers in small towns kept their kids in the house when a gypsy caravan rolled by. Teen-age, would-be romances were called "drugstore cowboys." Those a little older, known as "sports," gave forth with their views on life and love at the corner barber shop or the local pool hall.

Everybody in the neighborhood felt sorry for a baby whose mother didn't breast-feed it.

You could get a thick, creamy chocolate milk shake—made with two dips of real ice cream—for 15 cents.

Everybody was careful what he said over the telephone, because you never could tell what gossip would be listening on the party line.

The only labor-saving device the average housewife had was a broom—or a helpful daughter.

During the 1940s all the neighbors liked to call on the only family in the block that owned an electric fan.

The best thing about the movies was that they were silent. Many people thought that talking motion pictures—if they ever did come about—would be a nuisance.

A man who could brag he had once shaken the hand of heavyweight boxing champion John L. Sullivan could get a free drink in any saloon.

The height of high school parties was to remark, "So's your old man." It broke 'em up every time.

Little old ladies whined about the streets in high-seated, battery-powered motor cars that ran on hard rubber tires and contained a vase to fresh flowers.

The postman not only knocked twice—he also delivered the mail (first class letters, 2 cents) twice a day at your home.

Al, vanished yesterday. Remember?

Yanks Blanked, No-Hitter Becomes a Loss

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Heartbreaking losses for a pair of youngsters and a tough loss for a veteran. It was that kind of a night on the American League pitching scene Monday.

Joel Horlen of the Chicago White Sox had his brilliant try for a no-hitter and victory shattered in the last of the ninth at Washington. Chuck Hinton's single with one out was the first Senator hit off the 25-year-old right-hander, recalled from the minors last week. Then Don Lock's two-out homer pinned Horlen with a 2-1 loss.

At Baltimore, rookie Mickey Lolich of the Detroit Tigers held the Orioles to one single through eight innings but in the ninth Al Smith singled with one away and one out later pinch batter Dick Brown smashed a homer and Baltimore won 2-1.

Old-timer Robin Roberts got the victory with a two-hit performance.

At Cleveland, Dean Chance of Los Angeles fired a two-hitter at the Indians and was backed by a free-scoring platoon that included an eight-run third inning capped by Felix Torres' grand slam homer. Score 11-0.

Also in the AL Dave Wickenscham turned in an eight-hit shutout and Wayne Causey and Norm Siebern banged homers as Kansas City beat New York's first-place Yankees 5-0 and Boston withstood a Minnesota home run spree in downing the Twins 7-5.

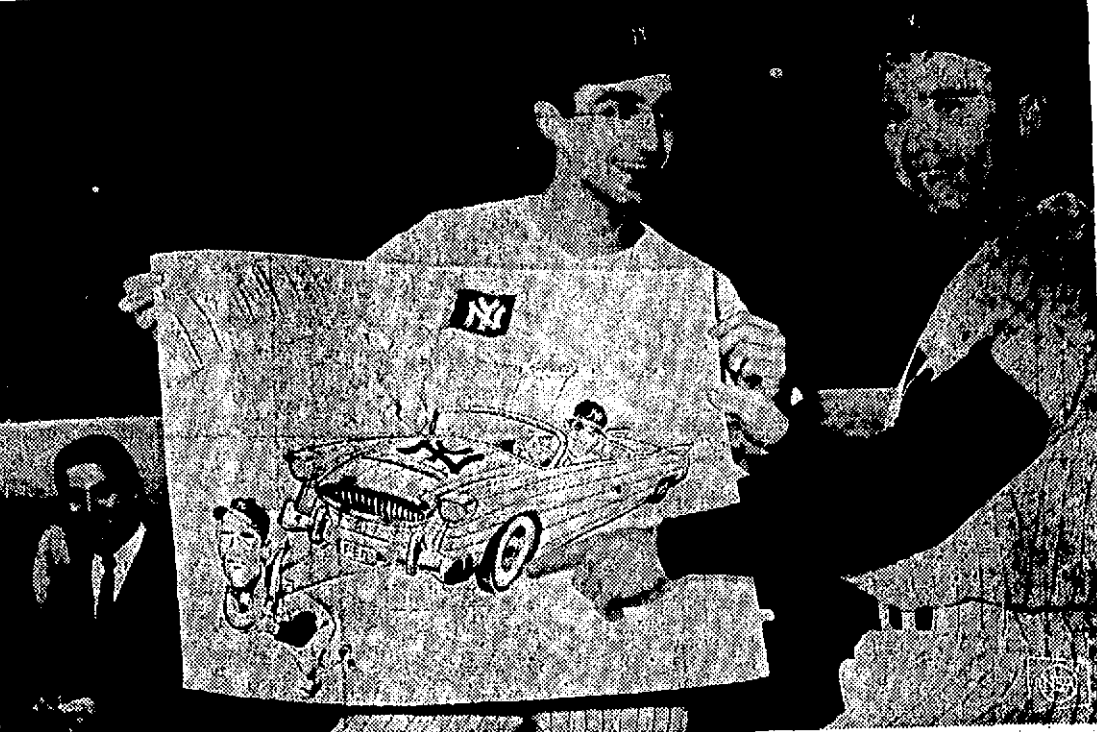

In the National League the Los Angeles Dodgers pulled out of a four-game losing string with a 6-2 victory over Philadelphia. San Francisco won its eighth in a row 5-4 over Pittsburgh and Warren Spahn won his 340th, pitching Milwaukee over Cincinnati 8-2.

Horlen, going for the first no-hitter in Washington in 32 years, retired leadoff man Jim King in the ninth before Hinton bounced his single. Larry Osborne grounded out and Lock followed with his 17th homer. The loss was the third against five victories for Horlen. Ron Kline was the winner after pitching the ninth for Washington.

Lolich, a 22-year-old left-hander, retired the first 11 batters, gave up a single in the fourth to Bob Johnson, then set down 14 more in a row before Smith batted for Roberts and singled.

Roberts allowed one Tiger hit in the first and one in the ninth.

IMMORTALIZED—Joe Pepitone of the New York Yankees holds a cartoon immortalizing him in his imagined glory as a big-time man-about-town, drawn at the request of Mickey Mantle, right. Pepitone seems to be enjoying the joke on the subject of the first baseman bragging about the attention he attracts, a subject on which Mantle and his teammates have been twitting him. That's the Newspaper Enterprise Association sports cartoonist writer, Murray Olderman, chuckling sardonically from the Yankee dugout, lower left.

Senators Dodgers Swap Players

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Washington Senators acquired Ed Roebuck, veteran right-handed relief pitcher, from the Los Angeles Dodgers today and sent infielder Marvin Breeding to the Dodgers in a waiver deal.

Roebuck, 32, has appeared in 29 games with the Senators at second and third base, hitting .274. He hits right-handed.

Breeding, 29, has been in 58 games with the Senators at second and third base, hitting .274. He hits right-handed.

walked two and hit a batter. The only run off the 36-year-old right-hander was unearned.

Fred Whitfield broke up chance's no-hit bid with two out in the seventh when he looped a single to center. Woodie held single in the eighth for Cleveland's other hit. The big right-hander walked three and struck out 12.

The Angels pounced five Cleveland pitchers for 14 hits, getting six in their eight-run burst against loser Dick Donovan and Jerry Walker.

Giants Can't Be Counted Out as Yet

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"The National League is tough and you can't count anything in or out until the season is over," declared Manager Alvin Dark of the resurging San Francisco Giants after they won their eighth straight game.

"All a team has to do is lose momentum one day and it can go into a slump," he continued after his Giants had edged Pittsburgh 5-4 for a series sweep, thanks to Willie Mays' three-run homer and great relief pitching by Jim Duffalo and Billy Pierce.

Ten days ago fans counted 10 over the Giants only to discover this wasn't boxing and the club wasn't out at all. For after being 10 games behind the Los Angeles Dodgers on July 20, the Giants have climbed back into second place just 4 1/2 games off the pace.

Tonight they face the hot Philadelphia Phillies and young Ray Culp as Billy O'Dell draws the San Francisco hurling assignment in the bid for a ninth straight.

Mays slugged a two-run homer on Sunday to win 3-1 and his 24th blast of the season on Monday provided the winning margin.

Truth Behind the Women's Track Team

By GENE KRAMER

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—What's wrong with American women's track and field? Why can't the U.S. girls' team win medals?

The question is asked repeatedly by European sportswriters about the winless U.S. girls now touring Europe with the undefeated men.

Dan Ferris, secretary-treasurer of the U.S. Amateur Athletic Union, replies that a big problem is lack of tradition in U.S. women's track and field, something that is being overcome.

"Some old-fashioned people," he said, "consider it both unfeminine and indecent for girls to compete in track suits but such ideas are changing. They should have seen the Russians in hardly anything but bikinis. And the Polish girls, as attractive and feminine as you please."

Animal strength rather than athletic skill is still too often the yardstick in U.S. women's track and field, said the American men's coach, Ilayton Jordan of Stanford University. "There are too few girls to pick from," Jordan added. "The solution is more and earlier training of more girls, by age groups, as in women's swimming."

AAU president Louis J. Fisher said parents must be interested and convinced that women's track and field is beneficial rather than harmful. "When you get the parents interested, women's track and field could flourish like little league baseball does," he said.

The American women's coach, Margaret Ellison of Abilene, Tex., acknowledges that in America there is an unfavorable stereotype of girl track and field athletes as tom-boys with bobbed hair and mannish looks.

But there's no reason women hurdlers, runners, jumpers and throwers can't be feminine if you popularize the sport among all the teen-age girls, said coach Ellison, an attractive redhead. "I've got some real dream girls on my team back home in Texas," she said.

Star Gridders Will Gather Next Sat.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The cream of the state's high school athletic programs — the Arkansas High School All-Stars — invade Little Rock next Saturday to begin preparations for the annual All-Star games, which will be played Aug. 10.

A dizzy schedule for the 100 athletes from 75 different schools in the state includes television stops, twice-a-day practices, a banquet or two and, of course, the basketball and football games.

They'll find time, too, to tend to blisters between stops.

Rush (Buddy) Harding of Clarendon heads the football coaching staff for the East squad, with Don Coston of Monticello the East's basketball boss.

Dick Hays of Ashdown is head football coach for the West and Joe Dillard of Yellville, whose 1962-63 team lengthened a winning streak to 40 games, will head the west basketball coaching staff.

Workouts begin next Monday. Two-day sessions end Aug. 9, when the stars will go through light workouts before resting for the Saturday battles.

Advance Is Extended on Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market extended its advance into a second session today.

Trading was moderately active with a number of sizable blocks changing hands.

Brokers felt that the snapping of 14 consecutive Monday declines by the Dow Jones industrial average Monday had bolstered confidence.

The advance was paced by motors and oils. Metals and airlines also were ahead.

General Motors gained more than a point.

Changes of key issues ranged from fractions to around a point with some bigger gains sprinkled among the specialties.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1.0 at 286.7 with industrials up 1.5, rails up .6 and utilities up .5.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials at noon had gained 3.61 to 694.32.

Steels managed fractional gains.

U.S. Smelting was among the more active performers, adding nearly a point and a half.

Chicago Yellow Cab was again in demand and advanced more than 2 points.

Polaroid gained nearly 5 points, IBM was up about 2 and Northwest Airlines was ahead 2.

Prices on the American Stock Exchange were irregularly higher.

Corporate bonds were mixed and U.S. government were unchanged.

Otto Thinks All-Stars Have Chance

By JOE MOOSHIL

CHICAGO (AP)—Head Coach Otto Graham doesn't have a short memory and for that reason it's a safe bet his College All-Stars will be well-schooled in pass defense when they meet the Green Bay Packers in Soldier Field Friday night.

Graham has been coaching the All-Stars since their last victory over the professionals—a 35-19 upset over Detroit in 1958 — and tipped his hand after last year's 42-20 loss to Green Bay.

"They beat us with their pass patterns," said Graham. "There didn't seem to be anything we could do about it."

Bart Starr, Green Bay's methodical quarterback, threw five touchdown passes as the Packers turned a 21-20 lead after three quarters into a rout.

Graham has been carrying a clipboard of Green Bay pass patterns in every All-Stars workout. But whether the All-Stars will try to rush Starr or concentrate on covering the receivers is something that will not unfold until Friday night.

Graham is as secretive as usual about his starting quarterback, the key role in the All-Stars' attack. The choice will be a tough one.

The All-Stars have Heisman award winner Terry Baker of Oregon State, Glynn Griffing of Mississippi, Ron VanderKelen of Wisconsin and Sonny Gibbs of Texas as Christian.

Will Probe Champion's Corporation

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver says his Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee will investigate a corporation established by heavyweight boxing champion Sonny Liston.

Kefauver said Monday he also will renew his efforts for passage of a bill to give the Justice Department regulatory powers over interstate professional boxing.

The Tennessee Democrat said the objectives of the subcommittee staff study of the Intercontinental Promotions Inc., which Liston set up, will include a determination of whether the champion gets any tax advantages from the corporation.

Kefauver added that there is no need at present for public hearings.

Liston appeared before the committee last year. Later, Kefauver introduced his bill for federal policing of the fight game.

Kefauver said the subcommittee also will look into the return fight clause written into many contracts. It guarantees the champion a return match in case he loses to a challenger.

Kefauver's bill died in the Senate Judiciary Committee last year. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy testified that he would favor federal regulation of professional boxing, but not by the Justice Department.

Water Projects Bill Expected

WASHINGTON (AP)—A vote is expected in the Senate today on a bill that would authorize $32,404,000 for construction of water projects in Arkansas.

The $609 million bill contains several projects which are an echo of a bitter legislative fight last year that ended with the elimination of those projects from the bill.

The authorizations are designed to permit work to continue on individual projects in the basins through June 30, 1965. However, the Senate Public Works Committee limited its authorizations to work through June 30, 1964.

Arkansas allocations in the bill now include $31 million for the Arkansas River, $1 million for White River and $404,000 for the Dardanelle Dam on the Arkansas River.

Mets Know All About Road Trips

By CHARLES MAHER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—All they have to do is lose tonight and the New York Mets will be able to speak of road disasters with as much authority as the National Safety Council.

If they can keep from beating the Los Angeles Dodgers — and they have had virtually no trouble in this respect before — the Mets will set an all-time major league record for consecutive losses on the road.

They have already lost 22. That ties the record established by Pittsburgh in 1890, during the administration, of Benjamin Harrison.

The Mets set a modern major league record for uninterrupted lull when they suffered their 20th consecutive defeat on the road at Houston last Friday.

The Mets haven't won a game away from the Polo Grounds since June 15, when they beat the Reds at Cincinnati. They accumulated five consecutive losses later on that trip, lost seven on their next trip and have dropped 10 on their present excursion.

Tracy Stallard, who delivered the pitch that Roger Maris hit for his record-breaking 61st home run in 1961, will try to avoid involvement in another unwanted record tonight. Stallard (3-9) will start for New York against Bob Miller (7-6), who pitched for the Mets in 1962.

Elections in Several State Cities

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Re-election bids by the mayors of El Dorado, Paragould and Van Buren went into voters' hands today and residents of Newport went to the polls to elect the men to run their new form of city government.

J. T. (Chigger) Brown seeks a second consecutive term as mayor of Paragould, running against Charles Wood. Brown defeated Woods in a court-contested election two years ago.

Mayor Roy Goudy of El Dorado seeks a third straight term against Ben Lindsey and Mayor A. R. Toothaker of Van Buren seeks his third term in a row against W. E. Neal and Ralph Sweeney.

Five men are unopposed for positions on Newport's Board of Directors, which will guide the city manager system of government. They are Dr. J. F. Jackson, S. L. Burkett, Dr. Oras L. Dotson, Harry Minton and Ed Holt.

The other two positions are contested, one between H. L. Hose, a Negro, and Edwin S. Elphinstone; the other between Neal Ward and R. Z. Wilkinson.

year that ended with the elimination of those projects from the bill.

The authorizations are designed to permit work to continue on individual projects in the basins through June 30, 1965. However, the Senate Public Works Committee limited its authorizations to work through June 30, 1964.

Arkansas allocations in the bill now include $31 million for the Arkansas River, $1 million for White River and $404,000 for the Dardanelle Dam on the Arkansas River.

Koufax Ends Dodgers' Losing Streak

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Handy Sandy Koufax, performing a thorough clean-up job for the Los Angeles Dodgers, has pulled the National League leaders out of their longest losing streak in two months.

Koufax pitched a five-hitter and posted his 17th victory in a 6-2 decision over surging Philadelphia that ending the Dodgers' losing streak at four games and maintained their 4 1/2-game bulge over the pursuing pack.

Winless for 13 days as the Dodgers struggled through their worst skid since early June, Koufax pitched smoothly if not spectacularly, with home run support from Tommy Davis and Willie Davis.

The 27-year-old left-hander has a 17-4 record — tied with Juan Marichal of San Francisco for the most victories in the majors. He is No. 1 in strikeouts with 195 in 194 2/3 innings and in complete games with 15 while maintaining a brilliant 1.89 earned run average.

San Francisco slipped past idle St. Louis into second place as Willie Mays hammered his second straight game-winning home and gave the Giants a 5-4 victory over Pittsburgh.

In the only other NL game scheduled, Milwaukee's Warren Spahn posted his 340th victory, with homers by Hank Aaron and Lee Maye providing the power, 8-2 over Cincinnati.

Kansas City shut out the American League — leading New York Yankees 5-0, Washington knocked off the second-place Chicago White Sox 2-1, Baltimore edged Detroit 2-1, Boston downed Minnesota 7-5 and the Los Angeles Angels walloped Cleveland 11-0.

Trailing 3-0 after two innings, the Giants closed the gap to a run on Chuck Hiller's third-inning homer and took the lead for good when Mays hit his 24th homer with two on in the fifth. The shot by Mays tagged Vern Law, 4-5, with the defeat and gave the victory to reliever Jim Duffalo, 3-0.

Spahn, slowed recently because of a sore elbow, picked up his first victory since July 7, checking the Reds on six hits. The 42-year-old left-hander, 13-5, was touched for homers by Yoda Pison and Frank Robinson. John Tsitouris, 7-4, started for Cincinnati and was a loser by the time he had pitched to four batters.

With one out Tsitouris walked Ed Mathews and Aaron and Maye followed with consecutive homers.
